Claims 1 and 3-17 are presented for examination.

The remarks filed on February 11, 2008 have been received and entered.

Claims 1 and 3-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112 first paragraph for the reasons set forth on pages 2 and 3 of November 15, 2006.

Claims 1 and 3-17 are rejected under non-statutory obviousness double patenting for the reasons set forth on page 4 of the office action of November 15, 2006.

Applicant's arguments and remarks have been carefully considered, and are not deemed to be persuasive regarding the 112 first paragraph and double patenting rejection. Applicant in his remarks argues that the claims of the instant application are drawn to a method of rescuing damaged nerve cells and not treating a neurodegenerative disorders. The arguments are not well taken. Rescuing damage nerve cells can not be done in a vacuum. The normal process is that the patient has a disorder which causes damaged nerve cells or the end result of damaged nerve cells manifests itself in a form of disorder. A person skilled in the art or trained in the treating patients does not decide to let's rescue someone's nerve cells, unless such damage has manifested itself to a neurological disease or disorder. Applicant's specification fails to provide an enabling disclosure for the use of the claimed deprenyl compounds for the treatment of disorders associated with nerve damage.

The obviousness double patenting rejection upon filing a terminal disclaimer will be withdrawn.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
